Dear Tom:

Last night Mr. Walter Donnelly told me that he had learned from [redacted] (apparently a [redacted]) that the women's organizations [redacted] have been held up in their organizational and operational programs by [redacted]. This concerns [redacted] very much because she felt valuable time was being lost, and was convinced the elections would be close. She feels the race will be decided by the women's vote.

I pass this information on to you for such action as you think appropriate.

You will note a copy is being directed to Colonel J. C. King and to Mr. Desmond FitzGerald.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director

The Honorable Thomas C. Mann
Assistant Secretary and U. S. Coordinator
Alliance for Progress
Department of State
Washington, D. C.
